PRIVATE ART WORKSHOPS FOR YOUR FAVORITE CROWD

ADVENTURE ART

Interactive tours for children (ages 5 to 10)

What's hidden in the picture? What stands out beyond the frame? With keen observation, clever questions, and creative prompts, these playful tours invite you to explore the highlights of the exhibitions.

Interactive tour: How imagination entered art
On your fabulous museum journey, you'll encounter dazzling explosions of color, lively brushstrokes, and plenty of bold art. What tricks does Klimt use to make his landscapes glow? How did Warhol become the king of Pop Art? And what are cut-up pictures doing in a museum? Captivating stories and clever artistic techniques will introduce you to grand visions and world-famous works.

Interactive tour: Who is speaking there?
Shh ... do you hear that? Perhaps a tree is whispering, a seashell is guarding a story, or deep beneath our feet, the heart of the earth is glowing. Together with Elisabeth von Samsonow, we follow the quiet voices of a world where all living beings are inextricably linked. We tell stories, marvel, feel, create, and playfully discover that every single voice matters – our human voices just as much as those of animals, plants, and the Earth we all call home.

DURATION & COST

2 hours / €320 for up to 10 children and two adults.

SERVICES & FORMAT

The flat rate includes supervision by an art educator, admission for two adults, the guided tour fee, materials, as well as a snack with juice and cookies. The two-hour tour takes place as an interactive guided experience exclusively in the exhibition spaces. Hands-on elements and creative activities invite you to experience art with all your senses. Halfway through, you'll be provided with a small snack.

HEIDI HORTEN COLLECTION

KIDS FACTORY

Studio workshop for children (ages 6 to 12)

A splash of color here, a flash of inspiration there—and you right in the middle of it! Inspired by great artists and Warhol's "factory of ideas," you'll create your own works in the studio: colorful, original, and delightfully a little bit crazy.

Kids Factory: Pigmentparty
Tomato-soup red, sky blue, and sunshine yellow. Colors jump, splash, and laugh their way through the world. But what are colors actually made of? How do they get into a picture? In this workshop, you'll explore how colors work, why they evoke emotions, and how artists use them to tell stories. Best of all: in the studio, you'll create your own paintings—with brushes, sponges, or simply your hands.

DURATION & COST

2,5 hours / €420 for up to 8 children and two adults.

SERVICES & FORMAT

The flat rate includes supervision by an art educator, admission for two adults, the guided tour fee, room rental, workshop materials, as well as a snack with juice and cookies. The first part of the program begins in the exhibition spaces. After the art tour, a small snack awaits you in the studio. Afterwards, you'll experiment with different painting techniques under professional guidance.

INFORMATION FOR PRIVATE CHILDREN'S GROUPS

Supervision & House Rules
Please note that the presence of two adult chaperones is required throughout the entire visit. These adults are responsible for supervising the children.

Chaperones
We kindly ask for your understanding that no additional chaperones beyond the two adults included in the flat rate are permitted. Exceptions apply for additional chaperones accompanying children with disabilities.

Information about the children's group
Please inform us of any special needs of children with disabilities when making your booking so that we can accommodate them as best as possible.

Catering
Due to spatial constraints, it is unfortunately not permitted to consume your own food. A snack will be provided by the museum.
